A message from Natalie....

Hotwire provides a community channel for every property. In order to access specific community information, residents do need to register their Hotwire account. I have attached a flyer that can be shared. Some residents could already be registered -

This is the link for Park Shore Landing. This website is a nifty tool for any information – it provides the rate sheet, channel listings, support, etc. Ability to send me an inquiry and/or chat with someone online directly.
